Starting in 1970 as a departure from the usual documentary, Roaming Japan has surpassed the 2000-episode mark with its unique travel and human-interest stories. This exceptional documentary series introduces people who love to travel as they uncover the real gems of their journeys. Be it finding the perfect meal, or discovering the artworks of a certain region, these travelers bring their joy of being on the road to a diverse viewership.

Regional crafts, local delicacies, and local culture abound as one particular region is explored in depth by a well-known host, introducing facets of Japan not normally accessible to the average viewer.
